G The pronoun on

On can mean 'one', 'you' or 'we'. It is used a lot in French; much more than we would use the pronoun 'one' in English.

It is used when talking about people in general and takes the same verb form as il/elle:

On améliore ses compétences en langue.
You improve your language skills.

on se fait de nouveaux amis. You make new friends.

on améliore ses compétences en langue. You improve your language skills.

on habite chez une famille d'une culture différente. you live with a family from another culture.

on visite un nouveau pays ou une nouvelle région. You visit a new country or region.

on apprécie non seulement les différences mais aussi les similarités entre nos vies. You appreciate not only the differences, but also the similarities between our lives.
